JOHN BLOWER TRUST

PRESS RELEASE 21/03/04

JOHN BLOWER'S SON - PAUL CLEANS CAR'S

John Blower youngest son Paul (14) has been helping to raise money for his father's trust by cleaning cars in the Winnington area. In just one day Paul and his friends made over £50. Paul said,

"I just wanted to do something constructive for my dad, I know it's not a lot of money but we worked hard and made sure that we did a good job. The people then gave what they believed was reasonable, they were just great"

JOHN BLOWER TRUST FUND RAISING COMMITTEE

The John Blower Trust Fund raising committee will hold a major meeting at 8.0pm TUESDAY 30th MARCH 2004 at Moss Farm Social Club. The Trust Chairperson Andy Naylor said,

"We need to organise one big fund raising event that brings the local community together in making a massive amount of money for John. I have no idea what the event should be but I want to make at least £10,000 on the day or night. I am appealing to anyone who has any ideas to contact me on 01606 76200"

The Trust now has just over £25k of its £150k target by the end of this year. To get this far has been a success and it has been down to the generosity of the people of Northwich. Andy went on to make this special plea to the community of Northwich.

JOHN BLOWER TRUST

"The trust has to make money for John, its not easy but the trust desperately needs a patron, ideally we need the patron to be high profile within the world of entertainment or sport. It must be someone who is prepared to do his or her bit for the trust and commands the media's attention. It would be brilliant if the patron could secure a big celebrity in the world of entertainment to do a live gig at the Memorial Hall for instance. This would be a great way to make money and to pay back the Northwich Community. Anything we do to promote Northwich must be in the best interest of everyone within the community"

John's father Alan Blower, who is playing a major part within the fund raising committee said,

"I want to see an event that is fun and open to all ages, maybe a fun run for instance. I know that any event takes up valuable resource and the Northwich Rugby Club lads are working flat out on John's behalf, but it would be nice if these people could just attend an event that has been organised for them, if a local running club could take ownership of running such an event it would be wonderful."

The fund raising committee already has a number of events planned these are: -

- Disco and brilliant Cabaret vocalist act 'JODIE ROBBINS' on Saturday 27th March at the Gladstone Club. Contact Ian Blower on 01606 79822 for details.
