The players were pleased not to have to put up with another poor refereeing display at home. Instead they were faced with a world class official who kept the game flowing, did not have to talk any player and hardly blew his whistle in a fast and furious game.

The front row were truly awesome and the tackle count from the three props was excellent. Just out of the chocolates this week was Josh Hall for a top class display of full-back qualities – catching, running and attacking.

One notable inclusion for the plaudits this week was the 'Byrne' – guess he must have had an early night for a change. RFU will be ruling this week on the future wearing of stockings and suspender belts on the pitch.
