What's it been like at school lads. As a Norwegian commentator once said ... "Margaret Thatcher, your boys have taken one hell of a beating" Guess the best team won on the day, and the playground banter has been in one direction.

Winnington displayed better fitness with better control and attack in the backs. Ex-stags Elliot Alston and Henry Bellis had points to prove and proved the points.

The second half performance from Northwich was better than the first but if we stand any chance of winning the plate, the coaches need to earn their crust and are already thinking of extra training sessions before the Wilmslow game for willing volunteers.

Well done to Sam Clayton who turned up despite last minute Les Miserable's rehearsals to steal the show for the team in Black and Gold.
