Northwich brushed aside a weakened Crewe and Nantwich team. Albeit it took the 'Stags' 25 minutes to score their first points. It was important that those players on the touchline for most of the semi-final got a full game this week, with Emilio Hannon having a particularly good first half. The man of the match award was clearly Joe Halsall's, not just for scoring 3 tries but for ensuring the ball was passed rapidly down the line, but this had a lot to do with Sam Barlow who stood in magnificently for the absent Chris Sheppard (forgot to put the clocks forward maybe?). Captain Scarlet produced some great photographs with his new camera. ... and let us not forget the Crewe mother who was sent off for trying to break up some chest bonding between the two teams, and also telling the referee how to do his job. Bless!
