Caldy

C U13's

Knowing their previous season-results, the Northwich team were worried about the visit from one of the best teams in Cheshire. Having the riches of two under 13 squads, Caldly turned up with twelve of their A-Team, and had the added first half advantage of an extremely strong wind. The writing appeared to be on the wall when at half time Caldly led by three tries (one converted) to nil. Although the tackling was brave and the forward work excellent, the positional play of the Northwich backs was weak, and all three tries came from the superb Caldly centre running round the lacking defence. The half time talk was focussed on directing the team towards attacking-in-defence and closing the gap between themselves and the attacking gain-line. If the second half performance was anything to go by ... maybe ... the team listened to the half time talk. Sam Clayton, Mike Gough and Jack Vandersteen set the example in the forwards; Sam Jones, Luke Murray and Chris Sheppard led the way in the backs; and there was some great tackling from Tom Foulkes, Jordan Byrne and Jamie Hall. In fact everyone played a part, by winning the second half. The first Northwich try was an excellent drive, ending with a dramatic dive from Mike Collier, and the second was another example of the high potential held by Josh Hall. Chris Sheppard converted one of the two. The only difference between the two teams was a strong Caldly flanker and a top class centre ... and he has our vote as man of the match, with a total of four tries to his name ... well done to him! ... and also a big well done to the Northwich team. However, training this week will concentrate on attacking with a defensive line and developing the much needed leadership required in mid-field. Northwich Team: Mike Gough, Will Mitchell, Alex Dickenson, Sam Clayton, Simon Dale, Mike Collier, Jamie Hall, Jack Vandersteen, Sam Jones, Chris Sheppard, Luke Murray, Josh Hall, Tom Foulkes, Jordan Byrne, Ryan Kitt Substitute (used) Baden Powell.
